——— Resolution of, relative to the mode of proceeding with respect to the Orders of the day and Notices of Motions, 19.

——— limiting the time for receiving Private Petitions, Bills, and Reports of Bills, 19.

——— That no measure upon the subject of Tithes in Ireland can lead to a satisfactory and final adjustment which does not embody the principle contained in a Resolution of a Committee of the whole House upon the Church Establishment in Ireland, 208.

——— That the conduct of the Earl of Gosford, as Lord Lieutenant of the County of Armagh, in the investigation held at Armagh, does not afford the slightest ground for blame; and that the imputations made against him are entirely without foundation, 255.

——— That this House will direct its early attention to the recommendations of the Committee which sat in the last Session of Parliament upon the subject of County Rates, with a view to the utmost practical alleviation of those burthens to which the Land is subject through the pressure of local Taxation, 284.

——— That in all cases where a Select Committee appointed to try the merits of an Election for any County, City or Borough, report to this House, that the Names of any Voters ought not to have been placed in the Register of Voters, or that the Names of any Voters have been unduly omitted from such Register; Mr. Speaker shall issue his directions thereupon to the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk or other Officer, with whom the Register of Voters of such County, City or Borough, is deposited, to amend such Register, by striking out or adding Names to such Register, as the case may be, in conformity to the Report of such Select Committee, 374.

——— That the Ballot for entering the Names of Members having Public Petitions to present, do take place at half an hour before the time appointed for Mr. Speaker taking the Chair, 375.

——— That, during the remainder of the Session, the House do sit from Twelve till Three o'clock on Tuesdays and Thursdays, except when Election Petitions are ordered to be taken into consideration, 421.

——— That this House do meet on Tuesdays and Thursdays (except when an Election Petition is ordered to be taken into consideration) at Twelve o'clock at noon, and proceed upon Private Business and Orders of the Day, and continue to sit until three o'clock, unless the business be sooner disposed of.—That when the Business has been disposed of, or at three o'clock precisely, Mr. Speaker do leave the Chair without adjourning the House; and resume it at five o'clock.—That if a House be not formed at a quarter past twelve o'clock, Mr. Speaker do then take the Chair, and count the House; and, if Forty Members be not then present, or if it should appear at any time during the sitting that Forty Members are not present, Mr. Speaker do adjourn the House till five o'clock:—That when the House is appointed to meet at five o'clock (pursuant to such adjournment, in consequence consequence of Forty Members not being present at the Morning Sitting), if the House be not formed before a quarter past five o'clock, Mr. Speaker do then take the Chair, and count the House; and if Forty Members be not then present, do adjourn the House till the next day; 435. Resolutions read again, and so much thereof as directs the Speaker to leave the Chair at three o'clock precisely, rescinded, 559.

——— Resolution of, That Mr. Speaker be requested to acquaint Mr. Henry Seymour, that this House entertains a just sense of the exemplary zeal and fidelity with which he has uniformly discharged the duties of his situation during his long attendance in the service of the House (Nem. Con.), 509.

——— That during the remainder of the Session, Orders of the day have precedence of Notices of Motions upon Tuesdays and Thursdays, 521.

——— relative to the existence of Orange Lodges in Ireland, 533.

——— relative to the promulgation of the Statutes, and the Printing done for the use of the House, 543. Resolutions relative to the promulgation of the Statutes, read again; to be communicated to the Lords at a Conference; Confernece to be desired with the Lords; 656.

——— That the terms on which the Loan of Fifteen Millions for the payment of Compensation to the Owners of Slaves has been contracted, are such as to afford the most satisfactory proofs of the Public Credit of the British Empire, 647.

——— That this House doth acquiesce in the Reasons assigned by the Lords for sending a Message by their Clerk Assistant and one Master in Chancery, instead of the usual Messengers, trusting that the same will not be drawn into precedent for the future, 650.

——— That this House doth not insist upon their disagreement to the Amendments to the Municipal Corporations Bill insisted upon by the Lords; and doth not insist upon the Amendments made by the Commons to the Amendments made by the Lords, to which their Lordships have disagreed; and agree to the Amendments made by the Lords to the Amendments made by the Commons to the Amendments made by the Lords to the said Bill, 653.

——— resolves at rising, to adjourn—
